

Now Hiring: Production Manager - Prophecy Chocolate (Morrisville, VT)

Having just moved to a new larger chocolate factory, we're hiring a full-time Production Manager to join our team. This job is available and open immediately.

Responsibilities:

- Bean-to-Bar operations at the chocolate factory.
- Oversee daily production and assist in all stages of chocolate making.
- Operate and maintain key equipment (winnowers, melangers, tempering machine, etc.)
- Manage wrapping and packaging of finished bars.
- Maintain a clean, organized, and food-safe workspace.
- Ensure quality, consistency, and efficiency in production.
- Collaborate with a small, hardworking team in a supportive, chill environment.

Who You Are:

- Strong desire to work directly with heirloom cacao & rare botanical relatives to create innovative and unique products.
- Experience with chocolate, cacao, confectionery and/or work in a production kitchen.
- Detail-oriented, reliable, and organized.
- Able to work independently and as part of a team.
- Passionate about quality food and craft.
- Excited to grow with a mission-driven company.
- Can lift at least 50 lbs.

Perks:

- Work with rare, heirloom cacao and botanical relatives of cacao.
- Join an innovative and growing brand.
- Plenty of chocolate along the way :)

Location: Morrisville, Vermont

Schedule: Full-time
